

R R Biradar is an Associate Professor at the Department of Economics, Karnataka University Dharwad, Karnataka. Previously, he worked at the Centre for Multi-disciplinary Development Research (CMDR) and Institute for Social and Economic Change (ISEC), Bangalore. He has published several research articles in reputed journals, edited books and reports and contributed a couple of chapters to the Economic Survey of Karnataka (2010-11 and 2011-12). He has a couple of books and monographs to his credit. He has been the recipient of Sanjaya Thakur “Young Labour Economist” award conferred by the Indian Society of Labour Economics (2005) and the Indo-China Cultural Exchange Programme by ICSSR, New Delhi (2007). He has completed several research projects sponsored by UGC, New Delhi and ICSSR, New Delhi. His areas of research interest include employment and poverty, human development, health inequality and public health financing. Presently, he is working on preparation of ‘District Human Development Reports’ of Haveri and Gadag in Karnataka, sponsored by the Human Development Division, PPMS Department, Government of Karnataka, Bangalore. He is actively associated with several research institutes and professional organisations in India.

